

NEW RIVER

RIVER TUBING

River Tubing on the New River is the perfect way to relax on a hot summer afternoon. The New River is one of the oldest and prestigious rivers in world. High Mountain Expeditions offers the unique opportunity to float this pure, clear, free flowing river. Water temperatures are inviting and offer reprieve form the hot summer sun. The depth of the water ranges from 2 feet to as deep as 8 feet making the New River the perfect River Tubing trip for all members of the family. High Mountain Expeditions offers custom hard bottom tubes that allow you to navigate the New River precisely and comfortably. We also offer custom cooler tubes along with family tubes that can accommodate the entire family. High Mountain Expeditions New River Tubing outpost is conveniently located only minutes from Boone, North Carolina. Before setting off on your tubing adventure a guide will orientate you on river safety and how to best maneuver your tube.

TRIP ITINERARY

High Mountain Expeditions New River Tubing begins operations daily at 10:00AM with the last tubing adventure departing no later than 4:00PM, throughout the summer season. All tubing guests must first make a reservation before arriving at High Mountain Expeditions out-post on the New River. Reservations can be made online or by calling one of our friendly adventure consultants at 1.800.262.9036. Upon arriving at High Mountain Expeditions New River out-post guest will be briefed on river safety and how to properly maneuver their tubes. Guests will then be driven to High Mountain Expeditions New River put-in. After launching your tubes it will take approximately 2-3 hours to float back to High Mountain Expeditions New River tubing take-out. Then you can celebrate the successful completion of your adventure.
